I liked Felt Rocks – utterly pointless and utterly irresistible. And it's not even a design, merely a by-product of a manufacturing process. But then so was Marmite. Tel. +1 604 696 2501 or visit: www.molodesign.com

I would also recommend Lladro's new range. After being dragged around Lladro stores on family holidays to Portugal I never thought I'd hear myself say "I love Lladro" – but I just said it! Visit: www.lladro.com

My final pick from the show is Deadgood's mirror. I like maps and I like mirrors. Reason enough? Tel. 0191 233 9544 or visit: www.deadgoodshop.com
